

Encourage your Human to take you to the pub.
It is likely he will drop a kebab on the way home

If you are unhappy with your bed let your Human know by eating it when he is out shopping

There are some days when your Human will feel glum and like he's shot himself in the foot. On these days only unconditional LOVE will help

While he is out, check your Human's search history to see if he's been looking at other dogs online

If your Human is offered a book deal make sure it's him and not you who has to do the book signings
